

Books

New book from Equinox Publishing

New In paperback
Reading Visual Narratives
 Image Analysis of Children's Picture Books

Clare Painter, JR Martin and Len Unsworth

Highly recommended upper education undergraduate through family professionals and practitioners.

The important contribution to the field of visual narratives in general and in particular to the study of visual media narratives in children's picture books is highlighted in the material upon which it is based.

Examining children's picture books provides a rich source for research. Theory and analysis of visual meaning and its relation to contemporary cultural life. This book offers new considerations of the visual image in relation to multimodal narrative analysis and of learning the literary elements and appreciating techniques of children's picture books.

Reading Visual Narratives offers the potential of applying functional theory to explore the visual aspects of visual meaning in relation to these contemporary and visual components of the narrative system and to the processes of meaning-making, the visual production of the reader through picture books in functional and situated in functional, reading and the theoretical implications of visual meaning through multimodal analysis and cultural and contemporary theory.

Reading Visual Narratives offers a critical and theoretical account of the production of the image in the context of visual meaning and the visual image and the narrative system. The book offers a critical and theoretical account of the visual image and the narrative system in the context of visual meaning and the theoretical implications of visual meaning through multimodal analysis and cultural and contemporary theory.

The Authors
 Clare Painter is Associate Professor in the Department of Linguistics at the University of Exeter. J.R. Martin is Professor of Linguistics at the University of Exeter. Len Unsworth is Professor of Education at Goldsmiths University, London, UK.

Table of Contents

Reading Visual Narratives
 Image Analysis of Children's Picture Books
 Clare Painter, J.R. Martin, Len Unsworth

ISBN 978 1 85196 814 1
 Paperback 2014
 Format: PDF + Tablet (EPUB + HTML content)
 207 pages
 Series: Functional Linguistics
 Routledge: students and scholars
 Subjects: Linguistics

Equinox Publishing
 4 Park Square
 Milton Keynes
 MK9 1PU UK
 Tel: +44 (0)1295 434000
 www.equinoxpub.com

Reading Visual Narratives
 Image Analysis of Children's Picture Books

Clare Painter, J.R. Martin, Len Unsworth

equinox

A Multimodal Analysis of Picture Books for Children
 A Systemic Functional Approach

Arsenio Jesús Gujardo

equinox

New book from Equinox Publishing

A Multimodal Analysis of Picture Books for Children
 A Systemic Functional Approach

Arsenio Jesús Moya Gujardo

A Multimodal Analysis of Picture Books for Children gives a critical and theoretical account of the production of the image in the context of visual meaning and the visual image and the narrative system. The book offers a critical and theoretical account of the visual image and the narrative system in the context of visual meaning and the theoretical implications of visual meaning through multimodal analysis and cultural and contemporary theory.

The Author
 Arsenio Jesús Moya Gujardo is a Senior Lecturer at the Dept. of Linguistics and Linguistic Theory at the University of Exeter. He has published several books and articles on the topic of visual meaning and the narrative system in the context of visual meaning and the theoretical implications of visual meaning through multimodal analysis and cultural and contemporary theory.

ISBN 978 1 85196 814 1
 Paperback 2014
 Format: PDF + Tablet (EPUB + HTML content)
 207 pages
 Series: Functional Linguistics
 Routledge: students and scholars
 Subjects: Linguistics

Equinox Publishing
 4 Park Square
 Milton Keynes
 MK9 1PU UK
 Tel: +44 (0)1295 434000
 www.equinoxpub.com